Abstract of Disclosure

[0027]   This document proposes a technical process to deliver pre-populated search suggestions to search engine search boxes using the Intelli-Match search methodology The Intelli-Match process matches search activities to broad category databases in order present users with search engine keywords that are relevant to the user's general area of interest.